

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, April 14. 1705.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated April 14.

Basil, April 5.

AMinister from the Republick of Venice, is shortly expected at Zurich. 'Tis talk'd he will bring with him advantagious Proposals, for renewing the ancient Capitulation for raising some Troops for that Republick. The Marquis Bereti, Ambassador of Spain, has offer'd the Mediation of the King his Master, for terminating the Differences about Neukirch, between the Popish and Protestant Cantons. The last Letters we had from Piemont, advice, that Verue defends it self still with great Vigour, and that there are Provisions in the Place sufficient to last till the 15th of this Month. We hear the Marquis de Puisieux, Ambassador of France, is arriv'd at Hunningen; and that the Marshal de Marfin is expected very speedily at Strasbourg, to command the French Army on the Rhine.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated April 14.

Amsterdam, April 14. General Heister, who commands the German Army in Hungary, continually sollicits the Imperial Court for more Troops, to reduce the Malecontents by Force: Whereupon some Ministers have made new Remonstrances to his Imperial Majesty, shewing the little Effect that Method had produc'd hitherto; and of what Importance it is to him to employ at least all his Troops that are not already in Hungary, in Italy and Germany. And they write from Vienna, that his Imperial Majesty has had Regard to these Remonstrances, and that he is better dispos'd than formerly to grant favourable Conditions to the Malecontents, in Order to put an End to the Troubles of that Kingdom.

The last Advices from Saxony of the 8th of this Month, tell us, the King of Sweden continues in his Quarters at Rawicz. His said Majesty lately caus'd the Saxon Prisoners, that were agreed to be exchang'd against 800 Swedes, to be cloath'd and remounted before that Exchange was executed; upon Advice that the King of Poland had done the like by the Swedes. The Officers were treated besides, and a Compliment was sent by them to the King their Master. The Swedish Officers raise a great many Men in Silesia; so that their Regiments both of Horse and Foot will soon be compleat. The Troops they expect from Bremen, Schonen, and Pomerana, are to be employ'd in Livonia and Lithuania; but 'tis talk'd that most of their Veteran Troops are to continue on the Frontier of Lusatia. The last Letters from Russia say, the Turks had express'd some Discontent, at the Republick of Poland's having concluded an Alliance with the Czar; apprehending least the good Understanding between them might tend to the Prejudice of the Port. But 'twas hop'd they would soon be satisfied thereupon, by an Envoy extraordinary that is to be sent to them.

They write from Switzerland, that a great Number of Sevnuois, were arriv'd there, under the Command of brave Officers; 'tis believ'd they will make a Regiment by themselves, and march to Piemont.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated April 14.

Cologne, April 10. The Night between the 7th and 8th of this Month, a strong Party of French, commanded by the famous Party-Leader La Croix, advanc'd to the little Town of Bruel, situate within 2 Leagues of this Place, and enter'd it by Scaling it on the side towards a Park, where the Wall is lower than in any other part; and their being not the least Notice given of their Approach, a Company of Foot of the Troops of this Electorate, that was garrison'd there, was surpriz'd before they could put themselves into a posture of Defence. So that only Captain Bauman of that Company, and about 30 Soldiers sav'd themselves in a Convent; three other Soldiers that were post'd as Centinels being kill'd, and 60 made Prisoners, as were also the Lieutenant and Ensign of the Company. After which the Enemy took their Way back towards Luxemburg with their Prisoners, fearing to be cut off by a Party of the Garrison of Bon. Mean time Captain Bauman is censur'd severely, for suffering himself to be surpriz'd in such a Manner; and some think he will be tried for it; tho' he imputes his Misfortune to 7 or 8 Soldiers, who had before deserted, and inform'd the Party-Leader la Croix, of the Condition of Bruel.

Plymouth, April 10. The 8th Instant, in the Night, sail'd from hence Her Majesty's Ships the Mary and Medway to the Eastward. Yesterday came in Her Majesty's Ship the Burford from Spithead, at the same time pass'd by this Harbour 4 or 5 Men of War to the Westward,

To Day also came in Her Majesty's Ship the Squirrel's Revenge, Captain Jackson Commander, from cruising. The Captain reports, that in his Cruise he met a Dutch Gaper, which had taken a Vessel belonging to Roscoe, the Master of which told him that Vice-Admiral Leake had taken and destroy'd 8 Sail of the Baron de Pointis Squadron.

Shields, April 10. Since my last a pretty considerable Number of Light Colliers are come into this Harbour; so that we have now a great Fleet here, which are lading as fast as they can; and most of them will be ready to sail for London by the End of this Week. The Nightingale Man of War is gone for Scotland; and there are now riding in Sandhope, Her Majesty's Ships the Assistance, Ramey, and Queenborough, Tarmouth, April 11. Yesterday came in here Her Majesty's Ships the Hampshire Captain Stepney Commander, and the Tilbury Captain Hanway Commander; The Crew of the Tilbury report, that having seen the Duke of Marlborough safe to Holland, and returning from thence, on the 4th Instant about 10 Leagues off the Coast of Holland they fell in with a French Privateer of 24 Guns, with which they came up and exchang'd several Broad-sides; during which Action the Tilbury had 2 Men kill'd and 2 wounded; but it falling little Wind the Privateer got from her. The next Day she fell in with another French Privateer of 16 Guns, who throwing her Guns overboard and lightning herself did under Favour of a Dark Night got from her likewise. Besides the Hampshire and Tilbury, the Solebay is here.

Harwich. Yesterday the Dispatch Pacquet Boat sail'd from hence with a Mail for Holland, And the Marling Sloop with 30 Sail of Light Ships under her Convoy to the Northward. This Morning the Prince Pacquet Boat sail'd with another Mail for Holland.

Certificate concerning Stoughton's Cordial Elixir, which pray read over.

This is to Certify, That having used Mr. Stoughton's Cordial Elixir, found always great Benefit and Success from it; and affirm, that when my Ship lay at Jamaica, a while ago, 6 or 7 of my Men fell ill with a great stoppage at the Stomach, high Fever immediately Light Headed, together with a Vomiting and Loofness, and most died in 24 Hours; presently after 6 or 7 more fell ill in the same manner, and I ply'd them with the said Elixir, and with the Blessing of God, every one were speedily Cured, and all the Men acknowledge they owe their Lives to that Medicine, and I am of Opinion it is of great use to be taken to Sea; it was in mighty Esteem at Jamaica when I came away, and was sold for 2 s. 6 d. a Bottle. This is Verbatim. Sign'd Matthew Beely, Captain of the BonAdventure, August 17. 1703. The said Captain is a Man of Worth and Reputation (his Dwelling at Pooler) and when on Shore, almost every day at the Mairmid Tavern in Cornhill, or Cock in Birch Lane, from whom any Gentleman may have satisfaction. When he came Home from Barbadoes last, he declares it was in as great Esteem there, and could have sold (would he have spared it) at any reasonable Price. I do affirm it to be so at New England, and other parts of the West Indies, and believe it the best one Medicine in the World to carry to Sea; for those Scorbutick Fevers, Fluxes, Gripes, &c. proceed from Infectious Air, Weakness of Stomach, and Bowels, against which this is a most noble Remedy, to be taken in a dram of Brandy, Punch or Rum, as a Preservative, or Curative; it will keep good many Years, and alters not in any Climate; when once try'd, few will venture to Sea without it. The said Captain hath just now taken a quantity with him to Sea again, and several others very lately that go with this Fleet. I have severall more Certificates by me of what great things it has done, too long to insert here, but any Body may see them. It is 1 s. a Bottle, Wholesale cheaper. What is sold by the Name of Garraway's near the Exchange is not the right, but a Counterfeit, and all others that has not my Name in a Cypher, and in words at length, on the Seal of every Bottle and Bill with it. Prepared only by R. Stoughton, Apothecary at the Unicorn in Southwark, and made publick 14 Years.

The Apoplectick Snuff.
